At age 39, Sam Houston went to Texas.
Pres. Jackson had asked him to report on what was going on there. Texans were having trouble with the Mexican Gov't.

The people from U.S. in Texas thought Texas should be a free state like the states of the Union.
They held a meeting in 1833. Sam Houston was at that meeting. They decided to send Stephen F. Austin to Mexico City.

Scout James was beaten in jail, & was Atkinson, commanding U. S. Troops pursued Black Hawk's warriors and their families as they attempted to flee across the Mississippi R. The Battle of Bad Axe was nothing less than a massacre with soldiers firing at Indians attempting to swim across the River. Most of Black Hawk's followers died.

Black Hawk was captured, put in chains and imprisoned at Jefferson Barracks outside St. Louis. William Clark dispatched Black Hawk to Washington so he would get an idea of American power. Pres. Andrew Jackson promptly imprisoned Black Hawk in Virginia. He was finally returned to his people in Iowa.

The brain of Georges Curvier weighed 1,830 grams; more than 400 grams above average and 200 grams larger than any un diseased brain previously weighed. What is direct evidence that brilliance and brain size go together?

But they did not see anything. Perhaps it
